

Frank Hale, Jr., M.A.
2550 Winchester Rd.
Lexington, Kentucky 40509
(859) 294-0354

CURRENT POSITION

Lecturer - Department of Philosophy, University of Kentucky (1999-2005). Courses taught include: Ethics and Society; Professional Ethics; Medical Ethics; Philosophy of Human Nature; Existentialism; Death/Dying and the Quality of Life)

EDUCATION

University of Montana: M.A., Philosophy (Teaching Ethics Emphasis) 1999

University of Kentucky: B.A. Philosophy (cum laude) 1997
Major G.P.A. 3.75
Overall G.P.A. 3.45
Minor: Psychology
Honors: Dean's List; National Philosophical Honor Society, Departmental Honors

PUBLICATIONS

- (1) "A Longitudinal Study of a Hospital Ethics Committee's Effectiveness" (submitted)
- (2) "The Montana Guide for Publishing in Applied Ethics", (The Practical Ethics Center, University of Montana)

RELATED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Ethos Consulting - Owner, independent consulting services provided to business and industry (curriculum planning and instruction for internal ethics instruction, analysis and revision of existing ethics codes, etc.) Clients include Westmont Healthcare Corporation, American Association of Equine Practitioners.

Research Associate, Practical Ethics Center, University of Montana (Publications and Promotions Co-Ordinator)

Instructor, University of Montana, Research Methods

President and CEO, Hallmark Farm
Owner/Operator of multi-million dollar Thoroughbred horse farm 1972-1993; supervised daily operations, maintained accounting and advertising programs, as well as directing client marketing efforts.

MILITARY EXPERIENCE

United States Army, 1965-1968
Company Executive Officer
Primary Instructor/Team Leader, Ranger Training Command
Brigade Supply/Logistics Officer
Officer Candidate School