Kentucky Children's Hospital welcomes a new pediatric cardiologist

Dr. Klein

We are pleased to welcome Dr. Lisa Rachelle Klein to our team!

Dr. Klein is an award-winning, board-certified pediatric cardiologist. She earned her medical degree from SUNY Upstate Medical University at Syracuse in New York and went on to complete her residency and fellowship at The New York Hospital. Prior to joining Kentucky Children's Heart Center, Dr. Klein was a long-time faculty member at the University of Louisville School of Medicine. She later served as director of the Sanger Heart and Vascular Institute in Hickory, N.C., a satellite location.

Dr. Klein has served on numerous committees and has presented lectures throughout the United States. Her research has been published in several journals, and she remains an active member of professional societies including the American Medical Association, American College of Cardiology, American Academy of Pediatrics and the Kentucky Pediatric Society.
